JEWS IN GREAT FEAR.

Odessa. April 7.—A sensation has been caused by the results in the municipal elections, just ended, which resulted in a victory for the Union of True Russian people. Out of seventy-two members of the town council, sixty-seven are now members of the union. The previous liberal council was regarded as the only safeguard against anti-Jewish disorders and the only body capable of interceding with the authorities against the black hundred. The Jews are in fear of fresh outrages and believe these will occur if parliament is dissolved.
